

Quiz prep Week 12 – Art, Education, Sport in Civilization

1. This Pope commissioned Michelangelo to create a funerary sculpture, then changed his mind and convinced him to paint the Sistine Chapel's interior?
- 2.. Having access to philosophers, mathematicians and this library help Cleopatra become an intellectual force of nature?
3. This group of young women only left the Forum to attend sporting events.
4. The worst seating within the Colosseum was reserved for this population.
5. Michelangelo was inspired by this sculpture, so much that he changed his plans for the Sistine Chapel.
6. This civilization likely regarded its female population more highly than the others
7. This civilization had to formal schools one for scribes and another for priests.
8. Archaeologists have excavated female figurines created around 30,000 BCE, are named?
9. How would you compare the educational methods of past civilizations? How did women break through their educational barriers? Is there a relationship between civilizations and their access to education?
10. How do the Arts, Education and Sports reflect a Civilization values?